SEC. 18. Standing Committees, Duties of.

(11) Investment Committee

A committee consisting of three companions preferably with a background or expertise in financial matters shall form the Investment Committee. One of whom shall be the Chairman of the Committee on Finance and Accounts; the other two shall be appointed by the Grand Master. They shall be charged with the control and management of the surplus funds of this Grand Council in such ways as such, in its judgment, is prudent, and adheres to sound business principles, while balancing the total return in accordance with the specific Council fund needs.

Statement of purpose

This is a specialized committee. There is no merit having a member of this committee based on the Grand Council position they hold. All members of the Investment Committee should possess a knowledge of or acumen in financial matters. It must be assumed that the Grand Master will consider these qualifications when choosing his appointments. By his chair responsibilities, the chairman of the Committee on Finance and Accounts should be well versed in this area as well. The phrase “in such ways as, in its judgment, is prudent and adheres to sound business principles” is further defined in the revised statutes of Missouri.
